ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES.

Not applicable.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL.

Not Applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Articles Eleventh and Sixteenth of the New Marriott Certificate and Section 7.7 of the New Marriott Bylaws (the "New Marriott Director Liability and Indemnification Provisions") limit the personal liability of New Marriott directors to the company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty.

The New Marriott Director Liability and Indemnification Provisions define and clarify the rights of certain individuals, including New Marriott directors and officers, to indemnification by New Marriott in the event of personal liability or expenses incurred by them as a result of certain litigation against them. Such provisions are consistent with Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL, which is designed, among other things, to encourage qualified individuals to serve as directors of Delaware corporations by permitting Delaware corporations to include in their certificates of incorporation a provision limiting or eliminating directors' liability for monetary damages and with other existing DGCL provisions permitting indemnification of certain individuals, including directors and officers. The limitations of liability in the New Marriott Director Liability and Indemnification Provisions may not affect claims arising under the federal securities laws.

Set forth below is a description of the New Marriott Director Liability and Indemnification Provisions. Such description is intended as a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the New Marriott Certificate and the New Marriott Bylaws.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR DIRECTORS

Article Sixteenth of the New Marriott Certificate protects directors against monetary damages for breaches of their fiduciary duty of care, except as set forth below. Under the DGCL, absent Article Sixteenth, directors could generally be held liable for gross negligence for decisions made in the performance of their duty of care but not for simple negligence. Article Sixteenth eliminates director liability for negligence in the performance of their duties, including gross negligence. In a context not involving a decision by the directors (i.e., a suit alleging loss to the company due to the directors' inattention to a particular matter) a simple negligence standard might apply. Directors remain liable for breaches of their duty of loyalty to the company and its stockholders, as well as acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law and transactions from which a director derives improper personal benefit. Article Sixteenth does not eliminate director liability under Section 174 of the DGCL, which makes directors personally liable for unlawful dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions and expressly sets forth a negligence standard with respect to such liability.

While Article Sixteenth provides directors with protection from awards of monetary damages for breaches of the duty of care, it does not eliminate the directors' duty of care. Accordingly, Article Sixteenth will have no effect on the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based upon a director's breach of the duty of care. The provisions of Article Sixteenth that eliminate liability as described above will apply to officers of New Marriott only if they are directors of New Marriott and are acting in their capacity as directors, and will not apply to officers of the New Marriott who are not directors. The elimination of liability of directors for monetary damages in the circumstances described above may deter persons from bringing third-party or derivative actions against directors to the extent those actions seek monetary damages.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Under Section 145 of the DGCL, directors and officers as well as other employees and individuals may be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation --a "derivative action") if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of New Marriott, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard of care is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with defense or settlement of such an action and the DGCL requires court approval before there can be any indemnification where the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to New Marriott.

Section 7.7 of the New Marriott Bylaws provides that New Marriott will indemnify any person to whom, and to the extent, indemnification may be granted pursuant to Section 145 of the DGCL.

Article Eleventh of the New Marriott Certificate provides that each person who was or is made a party to, or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or employee of New Marriott or is or was serving at the request of New Marriott as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged activity in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by New Marriott to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as the same exists or may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits New Marriott to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer or employee and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided that except with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, New Marriott shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors. Article Eleven also provides that the right of indemnification will be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which that director, officer or employee may be entitled.

ITEM 7. EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION CLAIMED.

Not applicable.

ITEM 8. EXHIBITS.

Unless otherwise indicated below as being incorporated by reference to another filing of the Registrant with the Commission, each of the following exhibits is filed herewith:

- 5 The Company and the Employees' Profit Sharing, Retirement and Savings Plan and Trust hereby undertake that they have submitted and will submit the Plan and any amendments to the Plan to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner and have made and will make all changes required by the Internal Revenue Service in order to qualify the Plan.
- 23.1 Consent of Arthur Andersen LLP.
- 24 Power of Attorney (included on signature page).

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(1) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

- (a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high and of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(a)(i) and (1)(a)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement.

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(2) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
